Civil Ceremonies

Civil ceremonies are becoming more and more popular as they give you the opportunity to tailor the ceremony to you, giving them a more personal touch. Having your ceremony in the same venue as your reception also saves time and money when it comes to transporting guests from ceremony to reception.

All 5 of our function rooms are licenced for civil ceremonies and are suitable for everything from the most intimate of gatherings, to extravagant celebrations. The most popular choice being our beautiful Conservatory, which is set along side views of the Leeds Liverpool Canal and the rolling hills of the Yorkshire Dales.

With external access through double doors, the bride can make her entrance and walk down the 50ft aisle with ease. After the ceremony the happy couple and their guests can easily access the towpath and surrounding area for photos.

The Conservatory is suitable for up to 60 guests and room hire starts from £600. For information on other function rooms, availability and capacities, please speak to your wedding co-ordinator.

Civil Ceremony Terms

- ♥ A religious ceremony or blessing must not take place during a Civil Service ceremony.
- ♥ The room in which the ceremony is held and anything within that room must be of a secular nature and not reflect any religious beliefs.
- ♥ Smoking or the consumption of food and drink is not permitted in the marriage room before or during the ceremony.
- ♥ Guests should be advised to arrive 15-20 minutes before the ceremony and the bridal party 30 minutes before. Punctuality is vital to the event running smoothly.
- ♥ Video recording may take place during the ceremony, providing it is unobtrusive and the camera operator remains stationary, with the agreement of the Registrar.
- ♥ No photography is permitted during the ceremony except by the invitation of the Registrar.
- ♥ Please note that proceedings relating to the civil ceremony should be organised through Skipton Registry Office. Rendezvous Hotel will accept no responsibility for failure to do so.
